MISSOULIANS TO PRESENT
RECITAL AT WMC

MISSOULA-----

Ann Bolen, a 15-year-old Missoula violinist, will be featured with her father in Dillon,
a recital at Western Montana College, Sunday, June 21, at 8:15 p.m.

Appearing on the same program as flute soloist will be her father, Dr. Charles W. Bolen, dean of the School of Fine Arts at the University of Montana, Missoula.

Father and daughter are well known performers, but this is the first time both have appeared on the same program as soloists.

Miss Bolen won the Billings Concerto Competition last year and appeared as soloist with Billings Symphony. She has been soloist with the University of Montana orchestra and the Missoula High School orchestra, where she is concert mistress.

While attending the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Mich., the past two summers, she was among the top violinists in the World Youth Symphony.

Assisting in the program will be Rudolph Wendt, piano, and Eugene Andrie, viola, both University of Montana music professors. Also performing with the soloists will be Karen Andrie, cellist, daughter of Professor Andrie.

Miss Andrie had a Fulbright grant to study cello in Europe, where she was soloist with several European orchestras. She is presently cellist with the Syracuse Symphony. This coming year she will be in the Atlanta Symphony.
